Trevor Chawana

Produc Owner | Rocket Financial Inc

He is a model professional - he got up to speed with the new environment very quickly and was delivering value from Day 1. In a short time, he was asked to take a lead as the D.O for Wire payments and he did an excellent job. He also took the lead in formulating and reviewing a number of architectural designs for the platform we were building. I really enjoyed working with him, as he is approachable and really good at simplifying technical concepts when communicating with people in the business.
